

Our passage today is all about

Judgement.

And it is especially about judgement on the Jewish leaders in Jesus' time, but it also has something to say to us.

The big question in the parables and events going on is: Who is in charge?

The first thing we see is that the leaders think they are in charge. But the parable that Jesus tells, shows very clearly that the leaders are not in charge!

Our passage also shows us that the leaders will not repent.

Jesus tells another parable about a man who had two sons and he asked them to work in his vineyard. They both did different things. Jesus was showing that there some people who don't look like they should be in God's kingdom but they will be because they repent, but there are others, who look like they should be in the Kingdom but will not be because they turn away from God's king.

Our passage lastly shows what happens when people try to be in charge instead of God:

The Kingdom of God is taken away and given to others.

Colour the picture of the man asking his two sons to go and work in his vineyard. Put a tick next to the one who actually did what his father asked.

Say a prayer with your grown up asking God to help you repent and have Jesus be in charge of your life.

Good is in charge
